

“Mexican Immigration and Health”

Honors College Travel Course in Mexico

Activities include: Lectures on Mexican culture, immigration, economic and health issues.
Field Trips and Spanish classes in Mexico

Students live in pairs with Mexican families

Faculty from USC and Universidad Veracruzana in Xalapa

3 week session for 3 course credits
May 12-16 at USC-Columbia
May 18-31 at Xalapa, Mexico

For more information contact Jim Clark

jclark@schc.sc.edu 803-777-9172

Arnold School of Public Health