ABOUT THE ARNOLD ALUMNI AWARDS

The Arnold Alumni Awards are the highest honors bestowed upon the Arnold School's most distinguished alumni for their outstanding achievement, dedication and/or service in the field of public health. These awards are named for the Arnold School's benefactors, Norman and Gerry Sue Arnold, and reflect their legacy of supporting and promoting improved health outcomes across South Carolina and beyond. Thanks to their generosity, the Arnold School is better able to serve its students and prepare them to become successful professionals and alumni worthy of recognition. The Arnold Alumni Awards are presented in May of each year at the Arnold School's Hooding Ceremony.

AWARD CRITERIA

The Gerry Sue Arnold Alumni Award is open to all alumni who graduated within the past 10 years (2015 or later). Both undergraduate and graduate alumni whose work has both made a difference to the profession and in the health of an identified community or population are eligible for this award.

The Norman J. Arnold Alumni Medal is open to all undergraduate and graduate alumni who graduated more than 10 years ago (prior to 2015). Eligible alumni should demonstrate work that has had both a positive impact on the profession and in the health of an identified community or population and has brought distinction to the Arnold School of Public Health.
